

Name _____

List 1

1. When there is 1 vowel in a word, that vowel usually says its short sound.

back

2. When there are 2 vowels in a word, the first vowel says its long sound and the second vowel is silent.

bake

3. Use ck at the end of a short-vowel word. Use ke at the end of a long-vowel word.

lick like

Homework

Copy the list on tablet paper.

1. back

back

5. bike

bike

9. pack

pack

13. bugs

bugs

2. bake

bake

6. lack

lack

10. stick

stick

14. a

a

3. lick

lick

7. lake

lake

11. camp

camp

15. the

the

4. like

like

8. duck

duck

12. tents

tents

Sight Words

To the parent:

Spelling homework is designed to reinforce each week's spelling list. Your child should copy the words on tablet paper, then bring the finished homework to school, with your signature, on the day assigned. Keep this page for your child to review spelling words at home as needed.

