

::MEET MISS HERNANDEZ::

The 1st Grade teacher at KCS!

{Let Me Introduce Myself}

Hello! My name is Jamie Hernandez or Miss Hernandez. I am a graduate of The Master's College where I earned my Bachelor of Science degree in the field of Home Economics-Family & Consumer Sciences. I am also an alumna of Kings Christian School. Beyond the realm of school I also enjoy baking, candy-making, and being creative. I am a member of Grace Bible Church of Hanford where I teach Sunday School to a group of wonderfully fun 1st -5th graders. I am SO excited to meet and teach your children!

Stated above I have been a part of the KCS family. I started attending KCS in pre-kindergarten and finished as a graduate of the high school.—a total of 14 years! KCS has impacted my life immensely through not only it's Biblical teaching but also through the example of Christian character modeled by the faculty and staff. The lessons I learned at KCS were not just in the classroom but on the athletic field, student government meetings, and conversations with my teachers. It is such a joy to return to my alma mater as I now have the opportunity to be a part of a child's life in the same way the faculty and staff were (are) a part of mine.

As the new first grade teacher it is my prayer that the Lord will use me to teach your children reading, writing, arithmetic, and many other things under the admonition of His Word. It is my prayer to instill in them an excitement for the Bible and how it is integrated into their academics. It is my prayer to thoroughly embrace this opportunity as their teacher, a position that brings joy unspeakable. ☺

Though the year has not yet begun, I have been preparing the classroom and eagerly awaiting the class' arrival. I am very excited to meet you all and hope you will be able to attend "Meet the Teachers" on August 17th. See you all very soon!

*In His Service,
Miss Hernandez*
